

MCAT2015 Summer Immersion

Austin, TX, July 6–Aug 20, 2015

Tuition: $9,499 (room and board available for an additional cost)

Room and board:

- $3,500 for a single room with bathroom
- $2,500 for a double room with a roommate and one bathroom

Austin, Texas, is unlike any other city, an exciting blend of active nightlife, government leadership and an unparalleled music scene. Visitors enjoy the duality of city living and scenic countryside. As MCAT2015 Summer Immersion students, Austin will provide the most exciting environment you'll have no time to see.

What? Never See! Yes that's right, because for 7 weeks you will be immersed in the most intensive MCAT preparation available. The Princeton Review of Austin services more MCAT students per year than any other single location in the United States and is home to many of our best instructors, including many of our teacher trainers and content developers.

Seven weeks of MCAT2015 Summer Immersion prep

- Program dates for 2015 are July 6-August 20, 2015
- Class will be held each day from 8:00am–10:00pm with breaks for lunch and dinner.
- MCAT2015 Summer Immersion, Austin consists of over 100 interactive lectures followed up by office hours, which focus on group work and reinforce recent core lessons. In addition, students will have time for teacher-supervised study halls and independent study. The life of an MCAT2015 Summer Immersion student will include:
 - Science Content Lectures (Biology, Physics, G-Chem, O-Chem)
 - CARS prep
 - Personal Statement Workshop
 - Passage-Based Strategy & Skill Sessions
 - 5 Proctored Full-Length Practice Tests (19 total online) and 5 Test Review Sessions
 - An orientation dinner to meet your teachers and fellow Summer Immersion students
 - General sessions regarding medical school admissions

Sample MCAT2015 Summer Immersion Austin Schedule

7:00–8:00am: Breakfast

8:00–10:00am: Instructor extra help

10:00–11:45am: Class

11:45–1:00pm: Lunch

1:00–2:45pm: Class

2:45–5:00pm: Instructor extra help

5:00–6:00pm: Dinner

6:00–7:45pm: Class

8:00–9:30pm: Lecture

9:30–10:30pm: Instructor extra help

Please note: Schedule specifics may change

Room and Board

Room and board is available. Accommodations and meals for students enrolled in The Princeton Review's MCAT2015 Summer Immersion program in Austin are available at Dobie Center, a privately owned resident hall conveniently located directly above The Princeton Review–Austin's office. Dobie

Center, a 27-story dormitory that can house up to 930 residents, includes a two-story mall featuring a movie theatre, restaurants and specialty stores. The Center is located across the street from the University of Texas on Guadalupe and 21st, at the heart of Austin's University district.

Facilities

Dobie Center is a co-ed residence hall. If you choose a double room, The Princeton Review staff will select a roommate for you of your same gender. The rooms are air-conditioned. Bathrooms and showers are available in each room. Students will also have access to common rooms, on-site fitness center, and an outdoor pool.

Housekeeping/Laundry

Weekly linen and housekeeping service is included. Students will also have access to laundry facilities.

Internet Access

Students are REQUIRED to bring their own laptop computers for testing and test review. Wireless Internet access will be available in the dorm rooms.

Meals

Dobie will provide three meals a day with brunch and dinner on Saturday and Sunday. Meals are served buffet style and are all you can eat. The dining hall is only open during meal times. All Dobie residents are subscribed to the meal plan, as there are no cooking facilities in the residences. Mealtimes may change slightly due to a given day's activities.

Sample meal schedule:

- Breakfast: 7:00am–9:00am
- Lunch: 12:45–2:00pm
- Dinner: 5:30pm–7:00pm

Emergencies

The staff of MCAT2015Summer Immersion are available by phone 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. They will be your main point of contact for any residency issues that may arise during your stay. Security and police/fire/ambulance (emergency: 911) are also available 24/7.